Dear Girls & Boys,

For the past several weeks we have been hearing about the suffering and death of Christ. Our human minds cannot understand the complete sacrifice that Christ has made for His people. I hope that you may pray often that God will reveal Himself to you. That is something that we all need, whether younger or older.

Your puzzle today is taken from the Psalters. At first, I thought that I would not be able to make a complete puzzle about the suffering of Christ from the Psalters. However, after reading through the Psalters, it is surprising how many lines are applicable to the events leading up to Christ's death on the cross. Maybe you can see this also when you complete the puzzle.

Children who have earned a book this time are: Summer Hoefakker, Lucy Kamp, Olivia Kamp, Easton Rogell, Allison Schipper, Sadie Van Lagen, and Ellie Van't Zelfde. Because it is spring break, I am hoping to meet you in the library next week, April 7, after the evening service, if all is well, to choose your book. Thanks for all your hard work on the puzzles!

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe

Today's Puzzle (10 points): Look up the Psalter lines listed on the back of the sheet and fill in the missing words. When you are finished, write down the letters from the center column on the lines below.

Bonus (1 point): You may receive an additional bonus point if you can take one of the Psalter lines from the puzzle, write it on the lines below, and write a matching Bible text that tells about that line. For example: Psalter 151 - They meet, they lurk, they watch; Luke 22:4 - And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him unto them.
